Dear SRJC colleagues,

Earlier this year, we shared that the launch of the Banner Student Information System would be delayed to Spring 2026 to allow time for additional testing, training, and issue resolution. Since then, we've made meaningful progress. However, after careful evaluation and ongoing consultation with our implementation partners and internal teams, we've made the decision to further adjust the go-live date to Summer/Fall 2026.

While launching on the previously revised timeline remains technically possible, this adjustment reflects our collective commitment to delivering a stable, fully tested system that truly supports our students and the broader college community. Moving forward too quickly could risk key functions essential to our operations and student success.

This additional time will allow us to:

- Build greater comfort and familiarity with the system across all users
- Identify and address gaps related to system customization
- Provide more in-depth, effective training
- Strengthen our communication and rollout plan
- Move beyond a basic implementation to deliver a more impactful student experience

We understand that delays can cause concern and affect other timelines and projects. Still, this decision is grounded in our responsibility to ensure a successful and sustainable launch. We remain committed to transparency and collaboration, and you can expect continued updates in the Fall—including training opportunities beginning with the Fall Professional Development Activities Day.

Thank you for your continued support and partnership. Please feel free to reach out with any questions, concerns, or feedback.

Wishing you all a wonderful summer!

Kate
